Mexico City, August 29, 2017. América Móvil, S.A.B. de C.V. (“AMX”) [BMV: AMX] [NYSE: AMX | AMOV], informs that today its subsidiary Comunicación Celular, S.A. (“COMCEL”) has fulfilled, under protest and reserving all of its rights and those of its shareholders, the payment obligation contained on the arbitral award under the arbitration initiated by Colombia’s Ministry of Information and Communications (Ministerio de Tecnologías de la Información y las Comunicaciones de Colombia or “MinTIC”) against COMCEL, in relation with its request to declare the enforceability of the clause, included in the concession agreements, providing for the reversion of wireless telecommunication assets related to the provision of services operated by COMCEL until 2013.

COMCEL is challenging the arbitral award in accordance with Colombian legislation. COMCEL will exhaust every national and international available legal action to challenge the arbitral award.

Additionally, in August 2016, AMX initiated an arbitration claim under the Free Trade Agreement between Mexico and Colombia (“FTA Mexico-Colombia”) with respect to certain measures adopted by Colombia against AMX’s and COMCEL’S investments in breach of the FTA Mexico-Colombia and international law.
